

German Intensive course A2

Course details

German class in the morning

80 credit hours

Monday to Friday, 09.00 am – 12.30 pm

Academic lessons in the afternoon

20 credit hours

two to three times a week, Tuesday to Thursday, 01.30 pm – 03.00 pm

Content of Academic lessons

In this course we will take a look into the turbulent past of the city of Berlin. You will learn how migration has had a lasting effect on the development of the German capital. In addition, you will experience first-hand the diverse cultural influences through excursions in the neighborhoods of Berlin. You will hear stories from and about Berliners and will find out the peculiarities of their city. Furthermore, you will discover the living situation more than a hundred years ago at original locations and get an idea of living in Berlin around 1900. You will continue to learn about everyday life in the former GDR. Finally, you will gain insights into the work of the world-famous German international broadcaster Deutsche Welle (DW).

Instructor

Liane Wyszka

Since 2017 certified assessor at the TestDaF-Institut Bochum

Since 2010 instructor for German as a Foreign language (DaF) at the Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin

2008 - 2010 Instructor for German as a Foreign Language (DaF) at Oberlin College in Oberlin, USA

2006 Graduation in the Master's Degree at the University of Calgary, Canada

2001 Graduation in the Master's Degree in American Studies and graduation in the postgraduate study

German as a Foreign Language at the Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin

2001 DaF Lecturer through the DAAD Program at the Universidad de Concepción, Chile