Content of Academic lessons

Besides its role as the capital of the Federal Republic of Germany, Berlin is also a place for political decisions within the European Union and a major cultural metropolis. During a lecture and seminars, representatives of the European Academy Berlin will give you insights into how Berlin is shaping Europe and how Europe influences Berlin. In addition, Berlin, the seat of the Federal Government, is a place of important political decisions. This versatile character of the city is to be illustrated in lectures and guided tours of the historical and contemporary development Berlin. Additionally, we will explore the relationship of Germans and their pop music. Finally, there will be the opportunity to represent these experienced perspectives of the city and picture your collected impressions in a drawing workshop.
