Berlin past and present - experience and discover

Is this contemporary or historic? Is this East or West? Is that good or bad? Is that important at all?

Get to know Berlin, its culture and its people directly on the streets of Berlin and see what makes Berlin so special. In communicative situations, we explore the city and practice our German at the same time. On the road, we will experience the present Berlin and its history. We will discover the intercultural and culinary side of Berlin at the Maybachufer Waterfront (excursions: along the old wall, visiting museums of art and district history, shopping at the market, et al).
