German Intensive Course B1

In this course we will plunge into the turbulent past of the city of Berlin. You will learn how migration has had a lasting effect on the development of the German capital. You will also experience the diverse cultural influences first hand by excursions in the Berlin neighborhoods. Afterwards, we will take a closer look at another exciting facet of Berlin: its beer and brewery history. Additionally, you will be introduced to Berlin’s living situation more than a hundred years ago. You will visit true-to-life locations in order to get an idea of the changes in daily life until then. You will hear stories from and with Berliners to get to the bottom of the city and its peculiarities.

Instructor:

Liane Wyschka

Since 2017 certified assessor at the TestDaF-Institut Bochum
Since 2010 lecturer for German as a Foreign language (DaF) at the Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin
2008 - 2010 Lecturer in German as a Foreign Language (DaF) at Oberlin College in Oberlin, USA
2006 Graduation in the Master’s Degree in American Studies and German Studies and a supplementary course in German as a Foreign Language at the University of Calgary, Canada
2001 DaF Lecturer through the DAAD Program at the Universidad de Concepción, Chile
2001 Graduation in the Master's Degree in American Studies and German Studies and a supplementary course in German as a Foreign Language at the Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin

Course details:

German class in the morning:
80 credit hours
Monday to Friday, 09.00 am – 12.30 pm

Academic lessons in the afternoon:
20 credit hours
two to three times a week, Tuesday to Thursday, 01.30 pm – 03.00 pm