German Intensive course: Germany in Moving Pictures B2-C1

Germany in moving pictures – discover Germany's recent history in film and video: the Roaring Twenties, the years after the Second World War, the Wall, its fall and the influence of this historical event up to the present-day. How did Germany, Berlin, and its people change? What are the differences between north and south, east and west? Experience moving pictures of Germany and its capital Berlin in order to create a script of your own German short film.

Instructor:
Arnold Lenz

Since 2005 Lecturer in German as a Foreign Language (DaF) in the Erasmus, HU GLA (summer and winter program) and refugee courses at the Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin 2002 - 2014 Lecturer in German as a Foreign Language (DaF) at the Goethe Institut Paris, responsible for: blended learning services, compilation of online grammar, teacher training, certified examiner for C1-C2, special courses in geography, film and creative writing
1989 - 2002 Lecturer in German as a Foreign Language, mainly at BSI Sprachenschule GmbH, Berlin
1988 Graduation in the Master's degree in German Linguistics/Political Science and Sociology at the Friedrich-Alexander-Universität Erlangen-Nürnberg

Course details:

German class in the morning:
80 credit hours
Monday to Friday, 09.00 am – 12.30 pm

Academic lessons in the afternoon:
20 credit hours
two to three times a week, Tuesday to Thursday, 01.30 pm – 03.00 pm